Report of Reviewer (Internal)

Indicators for Research Manuscripts	Scores
	5	4	3	2	1
The originality of the subject matter, and whether the manuscript would be of interest to the international, academic and activist readership of the journal.	✓
The theoretical contribution made by the manuscript.		✓
Whether the article draws on an appropriate range and depth of literature.	✓
Whether methods employed are rigorous, ethical, and suitable for the topic under investigation.			✓
Whether the findings presented are subjected to suitable analysis and sound conclusions drawn.		✓
Does the paper clearly identify any implications for future activism and/or developing theories? Are these implications consistent with the findings and conclusions of the paper?		✓
Is the piece well presented and organized? Does the paper clearly express its case, measured against the technical language of the field and the expected knowledge of the journal's readership? Has attention been paid to the clarity of expression and readability, such as sentence structure, jargon use, acronyms, etc?		✓
Is the paper written in a manner, which is non-ableist, non-speciesist, non-sexist, non-homophobic, non-classist, non-racist, non-colonialist, unlikely otherwise to cause offence, and appropriate for an international academic journal?		✓
